TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR VASVIK AWARDS

1. The awards are open to Indian citizens only
2. Applications/nominations will be received only in the presented format. These are available from the office of VASVIK, Western Express Highway, Goregaon (E), and Mumbai 400063 OR on our website: www.vasvik.org
3. Applications/nominations, which must be in English, should be submitted in eight copies, each complete with relevant supporting materials and must be neatly typewritten.
4. The awards are given in the following eight fields:-
 - Agricultural Sciences & Technology
 - Biological Sciences & Technology
 - Chemical Sciences & Technology
 - Electrical & Electronic Sciences & Technology
 - Environmental Sciences & Technology
 - Information & Communications Technology
 - Material & Metallurgical Sciences & Technology
 - Mechanical & Structural Sciences & Technology

VASVIK has also instituted a special award solely for women scientists, known as SMT. CHANDABEN MOHANBHAI PATEL VASVIK AWARD FOR WOMEN SCIENTISTS.

The field for which the application/nomination is desired to be considered should be clearly specified. Those desirous of being considered for more than one field should send twelve copies of nominations for each field.

5. Nominations should normally be made by Heads of Institutions in which the candidate(s) is/are employed. All eight copies be signed by prominent persons who are conversant with their work.
6. The purpose of VASVIK AWARDS is to recognise industrial research leading to national prosperity. The applicant/sponsor/nominating person should clearly indicate the extent to which the work under consideration has met this objective and also certify that the research was carried out by nominee(s).
7. Not more than three names will be accepted for a joint award. The name of the team leader should be given. If the application/nomination is for an award to an individual, it should be clearly certified that the work was essentially that of the individual and not of a team.
8. The award shall be given personally only, at a public function held for the purpose.
9. If selected for award, the awardee / awardees shall agree to give at least one lecture on the subject of the award, before a suitable audience, at a recognised place of learning preferably under the auspicious of a professional body. Such lectures will be organised jointly with VASVIK each year at an appropriate place.
10. Member of the Board of Advisers and Directors of VASVIK are authorised to act as a search committee to ensure that a wide choice of suitable persons for the VASVIK Award is available.
11. The last date for receipt of applications / nominations for 2009, 2010 & 2011 VASVIK AWARDS is 31.03.2012.
12. SMT. CHANDABEN MOHANBHAI PATEL VASVIK AWARD FOR WOMEN SCIENTISTS
In the case of women scientists, if the work is to be considered for the Smt. Chandaben Mohanbhai Patel VASVIK Award for women Scientists, this should be specifically mentioned. Eight copies of their application/nomination should then be submitted. The Women Scientists for this award should also state in bold type the discipline under which their research falls e.g. Mechanical Science or Electronic Science etc.
13. In all cases, the decision of the Board of Directors shall be final
